

Here's what the reviewers have to say...

"If there is any hope for us it lies in rediscovering and recreating community. Do not doubt this is possible. Read Walk Out Walk On and see for yourself—and see your self."

—Peter Senge, author, Fifth Discipline; co-author, Presence, and The Necessary Revolution

"Exuberant and galvanizing, this book takes us to where the future is happening—not in the corridors of power, but at the grassroots where a 'trans-local' movement is unleashing human creativity and smarts."

—Joanna Macy, author, World as Lover, World as Self

"This book gives insight and beauty to what is becoming the new, new world—an intimate journey with communities and citizens creating a future with their own hearts, hands, and relationships."

—Peter Block, author, Community; coauthor, The Abundant Community

About the Authors Margaret Wheatley was co-founder and president of The Berkana Institute; Deborah Frieze succeeded her. Berkana partners with people developing healthy and resilient communities worldwide, many of whom are described in this book. Margaret is author of five other books, including Leadership and the New Science and Perseverance.

Join us in launching Walk Out Walk On, a movement of people everywhere who are creating the world we wish for.
